Description: Group Discussion Week is a platform provided to the students of Podar college, where they can enhance their communication skills and boost their confidence. The Group Discussion Cell conducts the GD week every year where students can participate in the group discuss and GDC helps them by improving their group discussion skills and correcting their mistakes.

The Theme for GD Week is “Education Experimentation Evolution “- We have come a long way from the ancient gurukul system to brick and mortar schools and colleges to virtual institutions.

Amidst all the advancements, where students have to survive today's education system, let's hear what the students have to say about it!
