Description: On the occasion of Savitribai Phule's Birth Anniversary, the Women Development Cell organized an enlightening session in the college library to commemorate the life and contributions of one of India's first female teachers and social reformers. The session aimed to raise awareness among students and faculty about Savitribai Phule's relentless efforts toward women's education, social equality, and empowerment.

The program featured a brief overview of her pioneering initiatives, inspiring stories of her resilience, and her impactful role in shaping modern India. Students and faculty members actively participated in the discussion, reflecting on the relevance of her teachings in today's society. The session concluded with a heartfelt tribute to her legacy, encouraging attendees to uphold the values she stood for. This initiative provided a meaningful platform to honor Savitribai Phule and inspire the youth to continue her mission of social transformation.
