DESCRIPTION- The Podar Hikers Club organized an exhilarating trek to Sondai Fort, offering participants a blend of adventure and history. The trek, marked by scenic landscapes and moderate challenges, attracted a diverse group of nature enthusiasts. As they ascended the fort, participants enjoyed breathtaking views of the surrounding valleys and the thrill of exploring an ancient Maratha watchtower. The activity not only promoted physical fitness but also deepened the hikers' connection with Maharashtra's rich heritage. The trek concluded with a sense of accomplishment and memories of a day well spent in the lap of nature.
